Objectives:

- To spread the significance of the day among all
- To sensitize mass people about the day.

Description (Briefly):

As part of the project's activities, 10 and 11 October 2020 rallies, human chains and protest meetings have been held in 24 unions of Thakurgaon and Panchagarh districts on the eve of International Girls' Day to protest against rape and violence against women across the country. The program was attended by Union Parishad Chairman's, members, members of Nagorik Somaj Sangothon, , teachers, students, religious leaders and people from different walks of life. Speakers at the protest rally said that the way women are being raped and tortured all over the country including Sylhet and Begumganj is very worrying. Women are not safe outside the house today. They said that there is no group of criminals, they take shelter in the shadow of different groups to commit crimes. Immediately the maximum punishment for these criminals was demanded. The speakers further said that this problem will not end only if punishment is given. To eradicate this problem, it is necessary to build a social movement, to change the discriminatory attitude towards women in the current culture. And for that, each of us has to work from our own position. The speakers also called on the government to provide maximum punishment for rape from these meetings.
