Objectives:

- To inform about the services of the organization.
- To Enhancing the relationship between LA and the community peoples.
- Creating a joint plan through the participation of all.

Description (Briefly):

As part of the project's activities, the Union dialogue meeting held at union level from 10 to 30 November 2020 in 24 unions of Thakurgaon and Panchagarh districts while maintaining social distance. The dialogue meetings was held between Union livestock standing committee and union CSO members by the chaired of Union CSO president. The meetings were attended by members of the Standing Committee and officials of the Livestock Office. At first the representative of MKP presents the objective of the meeting. After that representative of Union livestock standing committee members discussed their present service on detail. They say, they say the Department of livestock is an important department. Animal husbandry is deeply involved in the daily life of every person in the village. So this dialogue program is very important. From this discussion we can get a clear idea about many issues. Then an open discussion was held. In the open discussion CSO members ask different question to the union livestock standing committees members. The notable questions and suggestions were why the livestock office not opened regularly at the union level? What is the official price of cattle torka vaccine? What is the way to save cows from khura disease? Can the Durk Plague vaccine of duck be available at the livestock Office? Why all the wards of the union were not vaccinated goats? Is the medicine for fattening cows given from the livestock Office? Why isn't livestock department staff regular available at the union level? The members of the Standing Committee and the officials of the Department of livestock try to answer all the questions in detail and accept any suggestions and recommendations in this regard. They also point out their limitations. Finally, all those present for the development of the area expressed their determination to work together. Dialogue meetings are completed through spontaneous discussions.
